

Stephane Gourg

Brigadier general
French Air Force

Chief of Staff
European Air Transport Command

Date of birth: 16 February 1968 in Bordeaux, Gironde.
He is married with Lucile and they have 4 children.

General Gourg is a 1990 graduate of the French Air Force Academy. He completed undergraduate pilot training in 1992. He is a command pilot with more than 6000 hours on the Mirage 2000, Falcon 50, Falcon 900, Airbus 310 and Airbus 340. He has conducted war missions over the Balkans, African territories, Middle east and Afghanistan, providing strategic airlift and aeromedical operations around the world.

He currently holds the position as Chief of Staff of the European Air Transport Command at Eindhoven Airbase, NL.

ASSIGNMENTS:

2020	Chief of Staff, European Air Transport Command, Eindhoven
2017	National military representative at EU, NATO, Eurocontrol, Brussels
2014	Head of International affairs, Military Aviation Authority, Villacoublay
2012	Head of policy Section, international affairs, Joint Staff, Paris
2010	Deputy Head of international Affairs office, Air Force Staff, Paris
2009	Head of western bilateral cooperation, Air Force Staff, Paris
2007	Military assistant to the Deputy Chief of Air Staff , Paris
2005	Commander of the Transport Squadron "Esterel", Creil
2003	Deputy Commander of the Transport Squadron "Esterel", Creil
2002	Trainee at the French Joint Staff War College, Paris
2001	Director of operations at the VIP Transport Squadron "ETEC", Villacoublay
2000	Deputy director of operations at the VIP Transport Squadron "ETEC", Villacoublay
1998	Training Instructor & Officer at the French Air Force Academy, Salon
1996	Command pilot at the Transport Squadron "ETEC", Villacoublay
1988	Cadet officer at the French Air Force Academy, Salon de Provence

AWARDS AND DECORATIONS:

Officer of the Legion of Honor
Officer in the National Order of Merit
Military Cross medal
Aeronautical Medal
Overseas Medal with "Moyen-Orient" and "Chad"
National Defense Medal
Nation recognition Medal